Huntington Sourced on Politics When Stan-ford r efected Sergent.

And Francisco, April 12.—Decidedly the event of the week has been me public avowal of the in-ternal discords that have seemipgly for years been ranking in the minds of the bead officials of the Southern Pacific Company. To the public eye and thought all had been harmony, and had it not been for the harsh words used in C. P. Huntington's address to his brother discords ast Wednesday, after he had been elected president of the Southern Facific Company, vice Sensior Stanford, resigned, it is possible the people at large would never have been the wiser for what-ever differences had arisen between Huntington onough, Huntington submitted to an interview the same day, in which he stated in more detail and with more force, if pussible, his views on Senator Stanford's police. This interview, which waspectally telegraphed to Tip Unetcontax, has been quoted by many outsiders to have been incorrectly reported. The fast is slat after it had been written out by the reporter who interviewed by m, a proof sheet of the interview was shown to him, and after realing it over he remarked Yes, I mean all that I sad," and returned the except season without a word.

b m, a proof sheet of the interview was shown to him, and after rea large it over he remerked 'Yes, I mean all that I set d," and returned the proof sneet without a word.

In summing up the opinions of Californians in general face 'Inntingion's remarkable utterances, it is probably safe to say that swampaty is targety with Stanford. Be seems to be more of Californians and to be more human them Humington. On the other hand, people like the latter's words on publicial maters, it. That the Southern Pacific Railway Company must be disorced from politics. Whether the charge is right or not, the public hard been inclined to think that as tho new president says. Things have got to such a state that I'a man wants to be constable he has first to come down to Fourth and Townsend streets (the railroad headquartery) for reperiession."

Liver since a suiford's election to the senate there have been a few who were quite distasteful to the republican party in california and who have, on the grounds of being personal friends of Stanford, endeavored to the clate candidates for election. It seems that in a measure Stanford annow was used without permission, and that he has had to bear the full burdon of opporeum that would maturally attach thesit to a man holding the peculiar position he did a hardynowish seems to be general that the has had to bear the full burdon of opporeum that would maturally attach thesit to a man holding the peculiar position he did a hardynomic seems to be general that the has had to bear the full burdon of opporeum that would maturally attach thesit to a man holding the peculiar position he did a hardynomic seems to be general this the action of the peculiar position he did not be seen to b this evection was ounsidered a for, gone conclusion by the two men. The possibility of anyone stepping in allead of har gent rever entered their minds. But when Stanford did step into the chair shead of brygens Huntingon is represented as being so sorie over it the Be never would forgive him Sonator stanford's friends say he did not want the sonatorship. It was only when he was assured positively that Sarpent could not be elected and that the leaders of the party and many prominent men in the state wanted him to take the place that he gave his consent. Oregon will get, in the river and harbor appropriation bill, upward of a million dollars, tha largest sum that has ever been given the state. This has been due in great measure to Ropresentative Hiermann's position on the committee where he has been able to present the claims of the state. Of this sum the principal amount will be expended on the Columbia river for the improvement at the Cascades The bill calls for $500,000 here, and for the mouth of the Columbia $500,000 here, and for the mouth of the Columbia $500,000 here, and for the mouth of the Columbia $500,000 here, and for the mouth of the Columbia $500,000 here, and for the mouth of the Columbia $500,000 here, as the $75,000 appropriated ravly in the sossion. For Yaquina, $120,000 will be appropriated amounts, which will make the appropriation fee the state as a whole very creditable. Provision is also made for additional surveys.

Washington, owing to lack of surveys, has not fared well. The Red Man's Homestead, Now Worth a Milliam, in Contest.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—[Special Tologram.]— Becretary Noble to-day ordered a hearing to determine status of the northwest quarter of section 12, township 25, in range 43, township 42 in the Spokane Falls land district. The case is of importance, as the land is a part of the city of Spokane Falls and is said to be worth at least $1,000,000.

Twenty-five years ago an Indian named Proceh Falls and is said to be worth at least $1,000,000. Twenty-five years ago an Indian usmed Enoch Billingong lived on the land and tilled it and mede some improvements. It has within the limit of on grant to the Northern Pacific ornitrond, and the state lange of definite location was fitted Enoch was still living there. He remained until 1883, whom he says have the Northern Pacific Company for 1800 because II. 2. Cawley, acting for the company tot him he could not perfect title. N. E. Spicer and in the could not perfect title. N. E. Spicer and en other citizens of Spokane Falls, some months on says the line of the could not be determine whether his was public land or was the property of the Northern Faush. It had been growing-valuable, and buildings had been erected on it. They claim that by reason of Eucch's residence there it did not pass to the company as a part of its grant. In making the order for a hearing the screinary discusses the right of the company and takes ground against it on the scene fits of the returns.

Under the act of March 3, 1875, a native-born Indian of 21 years, or the head of a family having abandoned his tribal relations, is given the benefits of the homestead law, with certain restrictions in the title when he has obtained it. This haw was in effect, he says, at the time the company's rights attached, and if the facts are as represented this would defeat the claim to fit of the many to the homestead and it is the land might defeat he claim to fit and to pay to the homestead the claim to fit of the north series of the same and the claim was duly recorded, but not as against the government. Investigation should be mude to determine on the status of the property at the time of definite location by the Northern Pacific, at which it can be developed whether the facts relative to the residence and improvements of the Indian are sufficient to except the lands from the grant. The rights of the other claims of the company have been determined.

CHICAGO, April 12.—To-day's ressions of the rival factions of the Evangelical church were very mild. Manifestos were exchanged, each calling one another to return to the fold. Both have formed completely separate organizations, just as if the other party was not in existence.
Bishop Esher's faction, however, is determined to have the records and other books, and the legal light which will be begun this week will probably hasten completion of the rupture in church.

In less than two months the electric motor now under construction will be whirling hundreds of our people to this beautiful suburb. As its beauties are seen and made known they will be appreciated, and those who make their selections and complete their purchases before that time will reap rich reward. In the last two and one-half months of the most dismal weather ever experienced in Oregon we have sold over $45,000 worth of this property, mostly to Portland people. No lets less than 100x100 feet. Present prices from $250 to $400 each. Costs nothing to inspect, and if not satisfied you will not be importuned to buy.

On the 7th of April a worthy citizen of Indeon the vin of April a worthy citizen of Indo-pendence reached his thirty first year. The West Stile in reporting the event says his wife any pleed him by preparing a nice dinner. Thus man must eer sinly look forward with eager de-light to the yearly anniversary of his heart. For haps at other times be heards out.

A minister residing near Ale, Marion county, had an appointment to preach over in Linu sounty one Sunday recently but in some way made a miss count and instead of going to his place of appointment he plowed all the forencous and in the afternoon went to Stayton to buy a few goods. One can imagine his surprise when he learned of his mistake.

The pioneers of Oregon are rapidly passing tway During the past six months a large num ber of the early settlers of Baker county have suc-cuciped to the dread messenger Death. The last to render the final account is 1 J Campbell, of Fleasant valley, who died at his readence last Sunday of pneumonia at the age of 78 years, arrived in Bikar county in 1862, coming di from Iews, and has remained here over since

While making the arrest of a burly half breed, white making the arrest of a burly half breed, an or convict, Marshal Robinson or Walls Walls, as no convict, Marshal Robinson or Walls Walls, as we very near losing his life recently. The ball breed suddenly pulled a kuife while he was being escowded along the street to jail and made a thrust at the marshal, who happened to be quick enough to parry it and knock the fellow down with his club. But for the marshal s quickness the keen, sharp binde would have been burled in his breast.

A "little Iujun boy," who became tired of the recyaints imposed at the Indian achool become lug imbued with the desire for freedom imparted by his disky ancestors, ran away from school at an early host Thursday morning and started out actool, presumably for his wigwam home near Adams. His absence was soon discovered, and the surerisendent property are and stevent superlutendent procured a rig and started !

Some time ago the people of the Whatcom school district voted in favor of the erection of a new school building to cost $30,000. For some reason the school directors contemplate building two chesp structures instead of one good building of brick and stone.

Another vein of coal was tapped recently in the m nes near Hamilton, which measures eight feet of clean coal at a distance of only twenty six feet below the surface. It was tapped by a small tunnel or prospect hole up the mountain above the nain tunnel. This vein lays just eighty-six feet beyond the firs' ve'n and tho main tunnel will be axtended to it in a few days. extended to it in a few days.

If the business men of Port Townsend want the sade of the surrounding islands, says the Leader bey should build serviceable wharves at the dif ferent points convenient for landing They should send agents to solicit trade and advertise and scatter good home reading matter all over these islands. O her enterprising towns are reaching on tor this trade, and if our merchants don't bestir themselves they will be forestailed.

"Unless all signs fall says the Logace," the Skagit valley will be visited by an unusually high freshet the coming June. The dyking super visors should see that their levees are in order and that weak places are strengthened and low places raised in order o attach the heavy pressure of water Repairs should be made now in order that the earth may settle and become compact be not delay this important matter until the freshet is here.

Charles schutz killed a spotted rattlesnake five fact two inches long on his ranch near Sedro. Fourteen rattles were removed from his snake ship, and the indications are that he would have been a very uzly customer to come across una warse. The color is a dark sea green, with very light greenish white spots vary log in size from a pin head to a quarier. This is one of the finest specimens of this dangerous repille ever seen west of the mountains.

The Faithsten Headd says At present there are all edge and the country They have congregated here awaiting the opening of the mining season in the mountains, when they will one and all tale their binniets and start for the Cascades on prospecting the The mountains in the tentity of this city have attracted the attention of the mining world and the country are an in the hills foil of man that are experienced miners and meep of determination

*STYLE QUALITY

STYLE .-- The newest cut and best fitting garment is what every gentleman wants. Our stock, being entirely new, contains no "ancient landmarks," but was manufactured for the Spring and Summer season of 1800.

QUALITY .--- The best material is what we aim to sell at all times, thus combining elegance of style with that of quality. The finest fabric, if turned out a misfit loses its charms and prestige to those who dress neatly. We have none such. PRICE .--- Ours is the strictest one-price system; no fictitious values; no auction; nothing thrown in, nothing thrown off. The best posted will not buy for less than those not gifted with as much knowledge about the cost and value of goods. The fact that we are successful indicates that our prices are right.

To all who believe in square dealing, to all who encourage honest and upright business methods, we will say: Come to the Famous for your Clothing, for your Hats, and for your Men's Furnishing Goods.

THE FLIGHT FROM THE FLOOD

The California fanatics, who, warned by the dreams of Prophetess Woodworth that Cakland and San Francisco were to be destroyed by flood have fled to the moun tains, are near of kin to the Millerstes Miller, the founder of this sect was born in Pittsfield, Mass., in 1782 His mother in Fittsheid, Mass., in 1782 his mother was the daughter of Einathan Phelps a popular Baptist preacher Religious meetings were of common occurrence in the house of his parents, and young Miller became early affected by the zual of exhorters and revivalists. At an age when in our day he would have been at play the dreamy boy was por ing over all the religious books he could bor row, and his mind, for lack of healthier stimulus, became tinctured with the literal emusements are excluded as impieus where there is no stir of varied industry where the ers that could be spared from necessary toli are given to theological broading of a most depressing character, and you have the most perfect conditions for the growth of theological and spiritual morbinities. In the mountain towns of New Lagland were born and bred Joseph Smith Brigham Young Heber Kimball and many other original apostles of Mormonism in the same region grew up John H. Noyos, founder of the Oncide community of surpiculturists Orson Murray Orestes A. Brownson and many other strange spiritual growths, men of various ability some of much scholarship, some of no scholarship and mean ability but all saving perhaps, Joseph Smith, men of sincere fanaticism. In this cold bog of New England soonal duliness and consoless theological brooding and howling grew up William Muller, who became a prosperous farmer and the owner of 200 acres of land. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, was a justice of the peace constable and sheriff. In early manhood he was a disciple of the deistr, Voltaire, Hume and Paine but sub-1831 Miller declared his conviction that to him had been given the key unlock ing the sacred numbers, that he must go forth and proclaim to a doomed world that in twelve years Jesus Christ would appear in person to judge all, that the end of all things would come some time between March 21, 1843, and March 21 1844. He was licensed to preach but never ordained Multitudes pressed to hear him. He paid his own expenses as a rule and admission piscopal and many prominent clergymen ame his converts. His lectures illustrated by great charts of apocalyptical beasts, exhibiting a mathematical demon-stration of the mystical problem of the 2300 days of Daniel's vision, showing just when the 'third woe' sounded, when the seventh trumpet sounded and just when the stone must smite the image. The grand culmination was to take place the 24th 25th of October, 1844, which was Miller a cor-zected figures for the final 'collapse," and at that time thousands of people assembled in full expectation that Christ would appear This date passed without any satisfaction for the elect, and Miller's following fell off To the last Miller, however resapidly To the last Miller, however re-tained a following of 50 000 when he died in Both in England and America at this time there was an eccentric religious wave. In 1831, the same year when Miller began to arise and shine Mormonism started into ilie. In 1825 in England Edward Irving, a minister of the Scotch church, a man of scholarship, genium noble presence and wonderful eloquence, began to preach the wonderful eloquence, began to preach the second coming of the Messiah I rying was expelled from the church and died in 1831, the year of Miller's advent. Following arving came another eloquent minister of the Scotch church, Rev John Cumming. who presched to crowds for several years vivid sermons concerning the near approach the last judgment. This sort of preach ing has been common in all times since the advised these prophets to fix their date of mundane dissolution at least so far shead that they would not be convicted of error in their own day. AN EXTRAVAGANT EULOGY

General R. H Milroy a brave Union vetaran, was buried at Olympia, March 31. The meral discourse included the following

Extravagant passage

It has already gone into history as a fact not to be controverted by any historian having a due regard for veracity, that Milroy's determined de fense of Winchester, where, with only 10,000 men, he held in check for three whole days nearly 101,000 of the best dri led and bravest soldlers of the Confederacy, under the leadership of the greatest captain of that short lived nation, General Robert E. Lee decided the issue of the pivotal battle of the war since it enabled General Masde to select Gettyshung as the neld whereon abould be fought the most ferrely contested, bloody and depulsive battle of the terrible four years' war.

We venture the assertion that there is not extravagant passage a single military historian of any repute on either side who can be quoted in support of this extravagant elemn General Lee June 6, 1863 started on his great campaign with the corps of Longstreet and Ewell leaving Hall a corps on the Ruppahannock to watch Hooker General Muroy had but 7000 effective men at Winchester Milroy's First brig-ade skirmished with the enemy during June 20 surroushed with the enemy during June 12 There was more skirmishing on the 13th and at dark Milroy learned that Ewell's corps was in his front and Longstreet's just at hand Under these circumstances what was the clear military duty of Milroy? Here can condict," "A theroughly brave and compeople commander must have realized, it justed by the thought, feeling, consequence and growing spiritual sense of manifed. We well as a time to fight, and that now was the time to run, after destroying everything that time to run, after destroying everytime; that could be of use to the enemy But Milroy held on, and let the night pass not proved." Next day June 14 Ewell's infan try swept over our breastworks and by night the city was substantially invested on every aide At 1 A. M June 15, Milroy held a council which decided to evacuate and run his powder and then when disarmed was attacked by Ewell It was not a fight, it was a race, for it could not be anything else Four miles from Winchester a rebel division Four miles from Winchester a rebel division and seeking for the reason of its fault " barred the way and Milroy lost in prisoners over 3000 Greeley says Milroy's great mistake was in bidding on just one day too long the communications with Halleck the seminaries is led by its ablest teachers and Schonck having already been and supported by the ablest preachers of the severed Everybody can see that while General Milroy was a brave soldier he was a logical seminary Rev Dr Iyman Abbott, moment after learning at dark on isth that he had Ewell's corps in his front and Longstreet's in close support General Milroy was simply a brave honest soldier, who from his incapacity as a general allowed half of his whole force to be "gobbled up" by the enemy The truth is that Milroy's holding on at Winchester had no influence whatever upon the fate of the campaign except reed lessly to swell its losses. The enemy skir-mished with him for two days in order to keep him employed until they could com-plete the investment of his position, and when their net was fairly spread they drew it and captured a greater portion of his com-mand. That the snorthee of Milroy's com-mand enabled Meade to select Gettysburg as the battle-field is an absurd proposition for both Lee and Meads agree that the choice of Gettysburg was an accident. Meads meant to fight at Pipe creek, but the armies blundered into each other unexpectedly and Gettys-burg became the field, not from choice, but rom necessity

There was no "heroic resistance for three days against nearly 100 000 men." There was nothing but skirmishing for two days, then a hopeless, confused fight and then a scamper for the Fotomac Ewell only took his time to 'gobble' Milroy, and we may be sure that General Lee, with nearly 50 008 men in hand, was never hatted by 7000 m any such position as Winchester Of course Lee would have brushed Milroy one side like a fly if it had been his plan to do so, but he did not wish to frighten off his game, but to bag it This ridiculous claim that the Winehester disaster of Milroy fixed the fate of Gettysburg has been repeated so often that we have given to it some space. The judgment of Greeley is the judgment of the military historians of both sides. The poverty of the losses in killed and wounded on resistance; no desperate fighting nothing but heavy skirmishing, save on the last day, when the enemy closed in and swept Milroy off the field

THE HISTORICAL ORIGIN.

The Oregon Presbyterians during the past week have been debating the proposed re-vision of the Westminster Confession In Oregon, as elsewhere, a constantly increasing number of Presbyterians perceive that the "Confession" grew of phases of thought and life, ecclesiastical and political, that no longer exist, and consequently that it contains much that is anechronistic, has become absurd, and therefore cannot be permanent. Long since the 'Confession' was modified or fact, and it is felt to be due to candor and truth that it be modified now

The Westminster assembly was a convo-The wasminster assembly was a convo-cation of ecclesiastics called by the long parliament in 1643. The object was to bring together 'an assembly of learned and godly divines and others to be consulted with by the parliament for the settlement of the government and liturgy, and for indicating and clearing the doctrine of the church (of England) from false aspersions and interpretations." The assembly consisted of 121 clergymen, called together from all the shires of England and ten members of the house of lords and twenty of the house of commons were appointed to at-tend its sessions. The king and parliament ing has been common in all times since the Christian era, but has for two centuries at least been treated with the good-numored attend the assembly. The status of the assembly was simply that of a company of ecolestastics called together to advise parliament in regard to ecclesizatical affairs, but having no legal authority It continued in sassion during several years, and the celebrated 'Confession' was the summary of its work. It first devoted its attention to an effort to revise the articles of the Church of emers or revise the articles of the Church of engin of all these occentric attempts to an nounce the second coming, to trust footen coming to trust plonaly to "fath cure, to believe in spiritiam, Mormonism, etc., proceeds from the ported to parliament which however, did not receive the sanction of that body, all the religious orders except the Presbyterian The ecclesiastical contention out of which excinds their opponents from political power in this world and put them into hell in the next Under these conditions the hard, rigorous and extremely severe sys-tem set forth in the scheme of church gov-ernment recommended by the assembly to parliament, and later in the confession of faith that has come down to our day, was formulated. Men rapidly changed sides in the confession as a contract of the confession of the controversy, as political and ecclesiastical ideas came into conflict or changed their aspects. The Independents, who were favored by Cromwell and the parliamentary army, had but a small body of adherents in army, had but a smail body of adherents in the assembly, yet these protested against the proceedings of the "forcers of con-science," as Milton in that immortal son not ending with, 'New presbyter is old priest, writ large," denominated the Presby terian leaders who were carrying matters with so high a hand. On their side the Pres-bytarsus as the contributions. byteriaus, as they saw their hopes of be-coming the state church fading away began to espouse in politics the cause of the royal-ists and to work for the restoration of the king Some fragments of the assembly remained and held seasions long after paritament had refused to adopt the Presbyterian plan of church government, but when Cromwell, at last tired of the whole farce, dispersed the rempt of the long parifia ment the 'rump' of the assembly disap-peared with it. But the confession of faith formulated by the assembly has remained the charter of Presbyterlanism to this day. and this is the creed which it is now pro posed to amend The Westminster confession therefore was the outcome of an acrimonious ecclesiastical controversy which fed and in its turn was fed by the flames of civil war It was a We venture the assertion that there is not hard, sovere and ornel system, such as hard, sowere and cruel system, such as might naturally be expected to flow out of antecedent and then existing coclesiastical political and theological controversies. It was Culvinism in all its rigors as developed by Knox and the Scotch covenanters, trying the correct the state railings of Eugland and to become the state religion of England and formulating a theological and ecclesiastical demands and purposes of a very determined system to suit the political body mined system to suit the political body of men of the time. Historically its genesis is as clear as its doctrines are absurdly out of place in modern religious kfs. In fact the doctrines exist no longer, except in name; and hones the demand for a reflsion that shall eliminate from the page of the "confession" dostrines long since reno longer think it necessary or wise to try to bar against those who differ from all avenues to power in the state and all roads to heaven.

* REVISION OF THE CREED

and magazines whether sacred or secular are full of evidence that we are on the eye of a new reformation. It is truthfully said that every Protestant church is examining and testing the foundations of its theolog and Rev Dr Phillips Brooks are all leaders in this new reformation. The doctrine of cternal dampation, as a central and funda mental article of all orthodox faith and theology is doomed to be expunged from the ereed The dootrine is already dead and in honests and candor it ought to be decently interred The terrors of bell are no longer preached in Protestant churches missionary somety of the Congregationalists is rent by internecine war because the ablest candidates for missionary work avon their repugnance to this decirine of eternal dam nation as framed in violence to every revision of the Westminster confession that is generally f vored includes the sirik ing out of certain articles concerning elec tion, predestination and the damnation of the heathen The opposition to revis on justify their resistance on the piez that the entire theological system of the confession rests on the doctrine of election, as laid down in the specific sections of the third chapter, which the reformers propose to omit or at least recast so that they shall ex press only the sovereignty of God his love for mankind and the offer of salvation to all Rev Dr Shedd argues that without the doc trine of election the confession has no mean ing, loses its premises and so that the whole or none must go Very likely Dr Shedd is logically correct but what of it? Why shouldn't it all go? There was religion in the world before 1613 47 when an assembly of iron oyed Presbyterian divines sat Westminster and formulated a creed excited the grave and carnest remonstrance of Cromwell and there is no danger that religion will receive any hurt if we make its creed as humane and generous as its prac tice The acorn planted in the Westminster flower pot has become an oak and troken the flower pot If anybody doubts the truth of this searction let him read the statement of his theological beliefs made by Rey Dr

a question regarding the Trinity, Dr Ab-I think there is but one God, not three Gods, and I don't use the word Trinity. I believe in one Divine Spirit who fills the universe with his om nipresence and is revealed to us by his manifestation in the fiesh and the dwelling of his spirit in us.

Lyman Abbott before the Congregational council, called to install him as pastor of Plymouth church in January tast In reply

Dr Abbott further said he believed the spirit, or soul of man to live only by keep ing up its connection with God as the earth with the sun. Inevitable death must follow the entire severance of such connection He preferred to think of an extinction of being rather than in everlasting ain and suffering Dr Abbott frankly confessed that his thediogy had 'changed in the past and will change in the future. It is imperfect and always will be for we know in part and we prophesy in part and the truth of God Is propassy in part and the truth of God is known in its entirety by none of us. But as the years go by and the creeds are leas, (sith and hope and love are more to me, the faith that looks with ever clearer vision upon the invisible and sternal, while all things earthly and temporal grow more shadowy; the hope that smid all the wreckage of life hears ever, like a bard sore in the temporal ever, like a bird song in the tempest, 'All things work together for good to them that fove God,' and the love which counts all humanify one great brotherhood, because chil-dren of that Father of whom every family in heaven and on earth is named." These words from one who avows himself the champion of the "New Theology" against champion of the "New Theology against the "No Theology" are strong assurance that there will not be less of true religion, of holy living and holy dying, in the world when the churches cut loose from the in human creed that rests upon an utterly unreasonable view of Divine justice, viz that a small minority of the race is to be saved, while the great remainder were to suffer unspeakable tortures for all eternity Faith in that foul creed is gone with the paws, and since it is gone with the pews the pulpit need not fear boidly to fling its ugly corse out of not fear boidly to fling its ugly corse out of the church door The church of the future, when its New Reformation is complete will ladly write over its doors its new and no bler faith

"That nothing walks with simless feet, That not one life shall be destroyed Qr cast as rublish to the void then God hath made the pile complete."

Dr Telmage thinks that one of the good ashions recently started that is destined to men to distribute while yet alive their nurplus accumulations, adding, 'It is a fashion that had its foundation in the fact that so many large estates have, immediately after the testator's death, gone into litigation Attorneys with large fees are employed on both aides, and the case goes on month after month and year after year, and after one court decides, it assends to another court and is decided in the opposite direction, and then new evidence is found, and the trials are all repeated The children, who at the father's funeral seemed to have an uncontrollable grief after the will is read go into elaborate process to prove that the father was crary, and therefore incompetent to was crary, and therefore incompetent to make a will; and there are men on the jury who think that the fact that the testator who think that the fact that the testator gave so much of his money to the Bible So-ciety and the Missionary Society, or the opening of a free library is proof positive that he was insane, and that he knew not what he was signing when he sub-crited to the words Iu the name of God amen I, being of sound mind do make this my last will and testament?" There is no doubt but this litigation over wills has resulted in much good in the way of the bestowal of bountles during the life of the benefactor, and in this there is at least a degree of com pensation for the disgraceful quarrels over wills that have disgraced courts and attorneys as well as warring heirs

The Salem penitentiary is inhabited by a faw more convicts this year than last institution by wise and economic institution by wise and economic manage ment has very nearly supported itself for the first quarter of 1890 without conflicting in any perceptible degree with honest labor. "WHAT'S IN A NAME?" A Portland Tom Jenes Arrested on a Dispatch

Pertiand Tem Jenes Arrested on a Dispatch From a California Tem Jenes.

Officer John Day has made an arrest that is in volved in peculiar c.rcumstances, to say the least. Several days ago he agreated a man named Tem Jones on a dispatch from another Tem Jones in Hornbrook, California. The dispatch stated that Tem Jones in this city was about to come in possession of a translent draft for $500 from a lady in Henley, California. A decoy package was sens the Portland Tem Jones through the mail, but before he could get it the officer had him in jail. The prisoner claims that he received a dispatch from his slates in California, some time ago asking him whether he was in need of money. He had not known her whereabout for several years but the opportunity to get some cash from a long lost was too good not to be taken advantage of so he wired back "yes send me $500 Molie wait for the money he was arrested on the dispatch from Tem Jones No. 2.

Officer Day is in a quandary to know what will be done with his mid. The Portland Tem Jones he step on the dispatch from tem the sin his mid. The Portland Tem Jones is not guilty of receiving money ander false pre-tenes, as the officer was not years and the step of the step of the sentences.

Officer Day is in a quandary to knew what will be done which is not. The Portland Tom Jones is not cullify of receiving money under false presented, as the engier was not allowed to wait in making the engier was not allowed to wait in making the engier was not allowed to wait in making the cultivariant of the money was entough the consequently of the money was entough the consequently of some crook educes in California, the officers will have to reciease him. I pe case werr much complicated, and it is possible that cortiand Tom Jones was impersonating the California Tom Jones was impersonating the California Tom Jones in order to get possible that California Tom Jones he would be guilty of no or me as the money never came in his possible of the distance feature come to this possible to the distance feature connected with the case is the dispatch sent the Portland Tum Jones by his alleged stater in Henley les As the California Tom Jones is expected to ar-rive here to day he may be able to clear up the

The new saw mill south of Stephens' slough is nearing completion. Last week the lofty amoke-stack was raised, and most all the machinery is in position. It will be a fine mill when completed. The machinery is all first class, sud the buildings are large and ample. It will not be long before the util will commence cutting up lumber. The saddrack will next be constructed on Jackson street, connecting the mill with the Southern Pacific railroad, when in operation and a full force of men is employed, it will make business lively at that end of the town.

THERE WILL BE TROUBLE.

Chickee, April 12.—As soon as the Beard of Teade opened this morning is became rannored that there was a corner in pork in contemplation, and a wild scramble of "shorts" to cover followed, while on the other hand men supposed to represent the syndicate engaged in running the corner took all that was ofered.
May pork opened at $11.55, and by jumps of 25 cents mounted rapidly to $15.25. July opened at $11.75, and made a clear advance of $2 per barrel, touching $15.75.
June wout up to $15.10. A recess then followed, and shortly after 11 o'clock May stood at $14, with other options to correspond. Lard and short fibs were strong in sympathy, but made no sensational advances.

Brokers anprosed to represent Atmour were among the heavy buyers. The supposition on the board is that the corner is worked through flawrespectively after 10 and the strong of the services.

After 11 the excitement subsided and nork receded to $12.50. At 12.45 P. M. its tood at $15.10.

are only begotten of healthy mothers How important, then, that the health of the future mothers of our land should be carefully guarded Our girls need the tenderest care as they are entering upon woman-hood. At this critical period of their existence it often happens, through neglect, that the seeds of distressing ailments are sown, which afflict them in after year. As a regulator and promoter of functional action them in after years. As a regulator and promoter of functional action at this important stage, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most reliable agent for building up the strength and system and establishing the proper functions. "Favorite Prescription" is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded, by an experienced and skillful physician and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely regetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For all those peculiar weaknesses, bearing down sensations, weak back, displacements, as prolapsus, anteresion, retroversion and kindred ulinents, it is specific. The only medicine for woman's peculiar diseases, guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded.

We is to ten regiments of cavalry, twelve it thops or companies to each regiment and by law sixty six mon to each troop. In foreign services the cavalry are generally very beautifully suffermed, mounted and equipped, each regimen in the English service especially having a distinctive dress but we, as good o tizons of a model republic, are taught from the very start the abolition of distinctions of almost every kind,

There is onl one way that you can tell any of our regiments of horse one from another when as far way as across the street. The faces of the men in two of them are black. Close at hand the little breas number on the forage cap will tell you the regiment to which the trooper belongs, or when in rapis the large figure ou the beautiful sittle breas number on the forage cap will tell you the regiment to which the trooper belongs, or when in rapiss the large figure ou the beautiful sittle guidon borne by each troop. But if the ten regiments were to be paraded all logsther in som wast open field you could not say which was wrote seen there rode the Vanh and Tenth regiments. Holmets, with long plumes of yellow hair dark blue tunes with we low trimmings light blue trousers, with yellow stripes, all tend to give our dragoons a decidedly waspy, gandy look when in full frees uniform and to see them at their best and to their most becoming and soldlerly garb, you should drop in all some of the camps or gar risons on the far frontier, where the dark, blite blouse and forage cap or broad frimmed scouting hat of drab fell replace the starling yellow facings of the full inform. There out on the vine prairie, with his loop belt bristling with copper fartridges bis dress trim and services his farmoun, in the very pluk of condition, his car house and revere sing handly about him, and he and revere sing handly about him, and he are the trypical American trooper, at i sike him all the circumstance or on the first very Hanlen's "Fantasma," Oleveland's Minstrels, Irish Drama and Vaudeville Offered to the Public This Week-Notes.

The production of "Monte Cristo" at the Marquam Grand during the past week, with Mr. James O'Neill in the role of Edmund Pautes, has been, in the main, an artistic success. It was handsomely siaged and correctly costumed, but the play, having been seen here before, did not attract as large audiences as it might have done under other circumstances.

Mr. O'Neill gives a very housest representation of the wranged Daties, and exhibits the skill of the trained actor in his delineation of the suveral phases of the character. The supporting company contains some good material, prominent among which is Mr. Henry Norton, whose assumption of the varions disguise of Nortier, showed him to be a very clever actor.

Nate D. Jones made a good Caderousse, Claude L. Whoeler an acceptable Villefort, and Harry Roberts an effective Fernands. Miss Grace Raven as Nerosdes was a little weak, while the Carconte of Miss Kate riscuber, and the Miss. Dunglars of Miss Nate Nicon were only fair. The engagement of Mr. O'Neill closed last night.

As mentioned in the trip of the produced are "Capitan Swift," Jim, the Penman, "Aint Jack," and "Saints and Sinners." A subscription list will be placed in the hands of a wall known citizen, who will shortly canvass the city for subscribers to season theteta. The price for six performances has been fixed for $10 for reserved seats, which is less than is requisally charged at the Madison Square theater, New York. Single reserved seats on the authorium floor will be $2 cach. This engagement will doubtless surpass the opening expense the curred and reand. On account of the expense the curred in from the bacces.

Cording's Theater.

The presentation of the stirring melodrama, "Michael Strogot" by the Musee dramatic company during the past week was in every way a creditable one, atthough those were a few points of weakness in the cast, as was naturally to be expected. Mr. R. E. French made a mauly and heroic figure as Michael and carried his respective scenes with paintaking care and consciontionsness. Miss Esste Titlel, in the sympathetic character of Nadia, won her an endince from the first night, and gave to her rendition of the character at intelligent grasp and caretuiness of delineation ereditable to her radent.

Miss Jillian Lawrence looked quite pletimeque as the gipty, Sangaree, and acted her part with becoming spirit. Margaret Maraball was foreible as Marfa Strogoof, carrying off the scene in the telegraph office especially well. C. M. Gray, as the American, and James Bevilm as the English correspondent, made the fun in the piece and did it cleverly. The remaining characters with one of two exceptions were well carried off.

The Videlias, Symmath, and Ned Horan, musical artist, also Nasmo, the juggier, were the main features of the Musee performance.

Says an Eastern exchange: Signor Tamagno, the tenor of the Patit Opera Company, sailed for Europe yesterday on the Normandio. More stories about his close calculations regarding monor matters have come out. Under his contract with Mr. Abbey he received $2000 a night, with free passage to and from Europe for himself, his brother and three attendants. But besides this there was a clause which entitled him to four orchestra saats and one but at overy performance at which he appeared. Tamagno bad his brother, who was a dummy member and the cliours at $15 a week, and also his private acreticary, go into the lobby with other speculators and self his box and these tickets every night. Thus he added to his already large tucome certainly $40 a night, and probably more.

Bignor Tamagno's penuriousness was never more markedly demonstrated than in the Mctropolitan opera house a short time after the Patiticompany began performing there. Feast properties the model to practice to send the only to the bar for a glass of beer, which he about he force he sang. By no chance did he ever give the boy a the. One night the barkeeper sent in a full bottle, price 15 cours, and he was wild with indignation. He and only ordered a glass, he said, and told the boy either to take the bottle back or drink the beer himself. At all events he did not pay the 15 conts.

William H. Crane as "The Senator." William H. Crane as "The Senator."
William H. Crane, the comedian, who has been a stranger to the const for many years, will visit the city in June, and will then present "The Sonator," the great dramatic success of the East. This fine comedy is now in the fourth month of an unparalleled run at the Birst theater in New York city, and will be produced here with its full Eastern cast, seeney as appointments. It is a play of appointments. It is a play of oday, and, dealing with the passage of the celebrated privateer brig, General Armatroux, claim through congress, it pictures social, political and diplomatic life in the national capital in a manner news before attempted. It central figure, Sonator Hannibal Rivers, played by Mr. Crane, is a patriff and a gentleman, though a political, and in this presentation he is said to have made the hit of his life. The company surporting Mr. Crane is reputed to be fully the equal of bulys, and if this is the case, it will be welcome indeed.

An alleged actor named Bandmann gave a very "rocky" performance of "The Morchant'of Venice" in the Soit Lake theater last Stonday evening before an audience of about 100 people. The theaturgoers of this city, however, well knowing Bandmann to be a tenegent sector, necferred to witness the acting of the helier in "Evangedine" at the Grand opera house, which place was crowded. Any one who has seen the acting of "Evangedine's" helfer and compared it with that of Bandmann will unhesistratigy say that the helfer is much the botter actor.—Saif Lake Tenes. central figure, Senator Hannibal River, pinyed by Mr. Crane, is a pairfol and a general man though a politician, and in this present a said to have made the hit of t
